Enroll in an HSA, keep more of your money

As prices rise, you're likely looking for ways to stretch your dollars and save more.

Opening a Health Savings Account (HSA) can help. This special benefit lets you pay for qualified health expenses with pre-tax dollars — with an estimated 30% in tax savings,* it's a great way to effectively increase your take-home pay.

Just a few things your HSA can be used for:

- ✓ Doctor visits & copays
- ✓ Vision & dental
- ✓ Prescription & over-the-counter meds
- ✓ Health trackers & diagnostics
- ✓ Menstrual products
- ✓ SPF & skincare products

DID YOU KNOW?

HSA's have a unique triple-tax benefit:

1. There's no tax on money added to the account
2. There's no tax on any investment gains on the account
3. Withdrawals made for qualified medical expenses are tax-free

Budget better with an HSA

You decide how much you want to contribute to your HSA each year (up to $4,150 for an individual, and $8,300 for a family in 2024).† Plus, the account always belongs to you — even if you leave your job, which makes it a great way to save for retirement, too.

*Assumes average tax rates, including state, federal and FICA taxes.
For illustrative purposes only. Individual earnings may vary.
